Trustee Chan checked with CCLC and found nothing had been done. As a result, Sue Chan contacted Trustee Barbara Calhoun, Chair of the Joint Caucuses (CCLC Affinity Groups) and suggested something should be done. Trustee Calhoun worked with Thuy Nguyen-Pro Bono Attorney for the African American Caucus and drafted a resolution for the joint caucuses to consider. Each CCLC Caucus developed a whereas statement to add to the Joint Caucus Resolution and Trustee Chan presented the whereas statement for AAPITA. MSC by Hal Gin and Sue Chan to adopt the Joint Caucus Resolution on recent SCOTUS ruling on Affirmative Action for AAPITA
 - WHEREAS, the Asian American Pacific Islander Trustees & Administrators Caucus (AAPITA) believes policies that actively fight racism and correct the historic impacts of xenophobia and racism are necessary for a just and diverse society; particularly in college admissions where education is the greatest equalizer; AAPITA stands with the majority of the Asian American Pacific Islander (AAPI) community in supporting affirmative action and denouncing the SCOTUS decision, as AAPI students will not be used as a politically convenient wedge on issues of racial justice
